

JOSEPH A. DE ROMA
INDEPENDENCE TWP. —

Funeral services were Tuesday for Joseph A. DeRoma, 44, of Autumn Lane, who died unexpectedly Saturday at Riverside Hospital, Secaucus.

Born Nov. 5, 1932 in Orange, he was a son of Joseph DeRoma of South Orange and the late Jennie Meradante. He lived here 13 years, moving from Orange.

He was employed as a supervisor for General Electric in South Orange.

A veteran of the Korean conflict, he was a member of the B.P.O.E. of Newton, and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Ledgewood.

Besides his father, he is survived by his widow, Janet Kellstrom; two sons, James and Jon at home; two daughters, Jane and Jill at home; four brothers, Michael of Irvington, Anthony of Springfield and Ralph and Louis of Maplewood, and one sister, Mrs. Rose Martini of South Orange.

Services were at the Cochran Funeral Home.

Interment was in the Pequest Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
August 18, 1977.

Obituary
Joseph A, DeRoma
Date of Death, August 13, 1977.