

MRS. BETTE A. DeWITT

Services were conducted Tuesday at the DeVoe Funeral Home in Washington for Mrs. Bette A. DeWitt, 26, of 729 Washington Street, Hackettstown, who died on Sunday, November 19, 1972, at Warren Hospital after a long illness. The Rev. Henry I. Wilson of the Colonial United Methodist Church of Oxford officiated. Interment was in the Musconetcong Valley Cemetery in Hampton.

Born in Hampton on May 9, 1946, Mrs. DeWitt was a daughter of Mrs. Shirley Behre Cook of Hackettstown and the late George O. Cook.

Surviving are her husband, Paul J.; a daughter, Kandi Lynn, at home; three brothers, George Cook of Washington, William Cook of Lebanon and Robert Cook of Wood Glen; a sister, Mrs. Doris Tuttle of High Bridge, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Cottrella Behre of Summit.

Hackettstown Gazette,
November 23, 1972

OBITUARY: Bette A. DeWitt
Date of Death,
November 19, 1972