

OBITUARY

Dorothy Dot Merriam Dellicker

HACKETTSTOWN — Dorothy Dot Merriam Dellicker, 98, died Thursday, July 8, 2004, in House of The Good Shepherd, Hackettstown.

Born on Dec. 2, 1906 in Long Valley, she was the daughter of the late Henry E. and Eva R. Stiff Ader.

Her husband of 61 years, Harry Bruner Dellicker, died in 1991.

She resided in Hackettstown from 1991 to 2004, and Long Valley from 1967 to 1991. Previously she resided in Morris Township, from 1939 to 1967. She was a graduate of Hackettstown High School. Dorothy was a registered nurse with Morristown Memorial Hospital. She graduated from the Morristown Hospital School of Nursing in 1928. Dot's hobbies were housework, gardening and yard work.

She was a member of The Long Valley Presbyterian Church, in Long Valley. She was very active in The Morris Plains Presbyterian Church, where she served as a deacon, and ran the turkey suppers for many years, until moving from Morris Township to Long Valley. She was active in The Long Valley Presbyterian Church as a member of the "Holy Folders".

She is survived by two sons, John and wife, Diane Dellicker, of Blairstown, and Harry, and wife, Donna Dellicker, of Porterville, Calif.; one sister, Lois Hunger, of Palm Bay, Fla.; seven grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Dorothy is predeceased by two brothers, Charles, who died at an early age, and Henry. Also three sisters, Vivian Ott, Jeannette Terhune and Mildred Duryea.

Services were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery, in Hackettstown. Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to The House of The Good Shepherd Memory Garden, 798 Willow Grove St., Hackettstown, N.J., or to a charity of your choice.

The Warren Reporter: July 23, 2004

NAME: Dorothy "Dot" Merriam Dellicker

DATE OF DEATH: July 8, 2004