

OBITUARY

William Dellicker

MERRITT ISLAND, Fla. — William Dellicker died Feb. 25, 1999, at Cape Canaveral Hospital in Florida. He was 80.

Born in Rockport, he was a son of Lyman and Mildred Dalley Dellicker. He moved to Brevard County, Fla., from Hackettstown in 1967.

He was a retired safety engineer for Rockwell International at Kennedy Space Center in Florida.

He was a recipient of the astronaut's Silver Snoopy Award.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II, serving in the Pacific theater.

He was a member of the National Rifle Association.

He is survived by his wife of 50 years, Marjorie Johnson Dellicker of Merritt Island, Fla.; a daughter, Judy Twiss of Cocoa, Fla.; a brother, Alfred Dellicker of Cranberry Lake; two grandsons; several nieces and a nephew.

Services were private.

William "Bill" Dellicker

William "Bill" Dellicker, 80, died Feb. 25, at Cape Canaveral Hospital.

He was born in Rockport and moved to Brevard County, Florida, in 1967 from Hackettstown.

He was a retired safety engineer for Rockwell International at Kennedy Space Center.

He was a recipient of the Astronauts Silver Snoopy Award.

He was a navy veteran of World War II in the Pacific Theater.

He was a member of the National Rifle Association.

Survivors include his wife of 50 years, Marjorie Johnson Dellicker of Merritt Island; a daughter, Judy Twiss of Cocoa, Fla.; two grandsons both of Brevard County; a brother, Alfred B. of Cranberry Lake; and several nieces and a nephew.

The Warren Reporter: March 6, 1999

The Star-Gazette: March 4, 1999

NAME: William "Bill" Dellicker

DATE OF DEATH: February 26, 1999