

Daniel Deremer

Completing a long life of eighty-one years, death came suddenly last day evening to Daniel Deremer at the home of his only daughter, Mrs. Edward Morgan, near Pleasant Grove. He complained of feeling ill earlier in the day and a physician was called. The daughter returning to his room after a brief absence found that the end had come.

He is survived by a son, Nelson F. Deremer of Hackettstown. For many years Mr. Deremer was a resident of the vicinity of Vienna, later residing in Hackettstown. His wife died about three years ago. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. William Jones, Wednesday afternoon at the Vienna, Methodist Episcopal church.

Washington Star
January 24, 1929

OBITUARY
Daniel Deremer
Date of Death
January 19, 1929