

Robert Deremer.

His many friends were shocked to learn of the death of Robert Deremer, from pneumonia, last Saturday evening, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Deremer, of Washington street. He was ill less than a week and his condition had not been reported as serious. The deceased was but 21 years old last June, and was unmarried.

Mr. Deremer was employed in the machine shop of the American Saw Mill Machinery Co. He was a member of Monitor Council, No. 83, Jr. O. U. A. M.; Pilgrim Castle, No. 16, K. of G. E., and the Cataract Hose Co. Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters and a brother, Mrs. William Starling of Newton, William Deremer of York, Pa., and Marion, at home. Also by a half-sister, Mrs. Henion, of Ramsey.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the home, Rev. S. T. Jackson officiating. Interment was in Union cemetery.

Hackettstown Gazette
7 January, 1916

Robert Deremer
Date of death:
1 January, 1916