

Vijay Haridutt Desai

Vijay Haridutt Desai, 71, of Hackettstown, died Nov. 28, at Pocono Medical Center in Stroudsburg, Pa.

Born Oct. 12, 1929 in India, he was a son of the Uma and Haridutt Vasanji Desai.

He lived in Queens, N.Y., prior to moving to Hackettstown a few years ago.

He was a purchaser with the City of New York.

He was a member of the Priest Temple of the Hindu Religion.

Survivors include his wife, Sunita Desai; his mother Uma in Georgia; a daughter, Alpha Montoya of Edison; three brothers, Jayant, Haren and Virang; three sisters, Usha Naik, Shakuntala Sharma and Shobhna Desai; and three grandchildren.

Services were held at Cochran Funeral Home, Inc. in Hackettstown.

Interment was in Somerset Hills Crematory Memorial Park in Basking Ridge.

Vijay H. Desai, purchasing agent

Vijay Haridutt Desai, 71, of Hackettstown, died Tuesday, Nov. 28 in Pocono Medical Center in Stroudsburg.

He was a purchasing agent for the City of New York.

Born Oct. 12, 1929 in India, he was a son of Uma Desai in Georgia and the late Haridutt Vasanji Desai. He resided in Queens, N.Y., moving to Hackettstown a few years ago.

He was a member of Priest Temple of the Hindu Religion in Parsippany.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his wife, the former Sunita Parikh; a daughter, Alpha Montoya of Edison, N.J.; three brothers, Jayant, Haren and Virang; three sisters, Usha Naik, Shakuntala Sharma and Shobhna; and three grandchildren.

Services were held Thursday in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Interment was in Somerset Hills Crematory Memorial Park in Basking Ridge.

The Star-Gazette: December 7, 2000

Express Times: December 1, 2000

NAME: Desai, Vijay H.

DATE OF DEATH: November 28, 2000