

Freida K. Dexheimer

Freida K. Dexheimer, 78, of 90 Riverside Gardens in Hackettstown, died Monday in Dover General Hospital following a long illness.

She was born July 4, 1911, in South Fork, Pa., a daughter of the late John and Elsie Smelka Sadlofski.

She resided most of her life in West New York, N.J., and Jersey City. For the past 14 years she lived in Hackettstown.

Her husband, Joseph A., died Oct. 19, 1988.

She is survived by a son, Richard of New Milford, N.J.; a daughter, Elaine Catton of Byram Township, N.J.; a brother, Henry Malonek of Johnstown, Pa.; two sisters, Tillie Czap of Danbury, Conn., and Florence Anderson of Westwood, N.J.; and four grandchildren.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. Friday in Scala Memorial Home in Hackettstown. Interment will be in Hackettstown Union Cemetery in Hackettstown.

THE EXPRESS
July 19, 1989

Freida K. Dexheimer
Date of death: July 17, 1989