

James P. DiRienzo

A Mass of Christian Burial was said for James P. DiRienzo, 73, of East Stroudsburg, Pa., who died Sept. 28 at Pocono Medical Center in East Stroudsburg after a short illness.

He was born in Atlas, Pa., and lived in Hackettstown most of his life, moving to East Stroudsburg three years ago.

He was owner and operator of Ann's Tavern in Hackettstown from 1959 to 1966, and owner and operator of the Country Store in Hackettstown from 1967 to 1972. He was self-employed as a carpenter until he retired in 1982.

He was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church, East Stroudsburg, and past commander of the Blue Ridge Post 164, American Legion in Hackettstown. He served in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Helen M. Pulick DiRienzo; a daughter, Patrice Dowdell of White Township; a brother, Robert DiRienzo of Hackettstown; four sisters, Florence May of Mt. Carmel, Pa., Dorothy Filipski of Dover, Rita DiRienzo of Hacketts-

STAR-GAZETTE
October 5, 1989

James P. DiRienzo
Date of death: September 28, 1989