

Mrs. Mary C. Dickson
Funeral services for Mrs. Mary C. Dickson, 75 years old, were held Monday afternoon at her home, 247 Grand Avenue, Hackettstown, N.J., by Rev. Warren R. Neff, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Hackettstown, of which Mrs. Dickson had long been a member and of various auxiliaries. Burial was in the family plot in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.
Mrs. Dickson, after a lengthy illness from complications of a paralytic nature, passed away early Saturday morning at her home, 247 Grand Avenue. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Herter, was born in Belvidere and had resided since three years old at the Grand Avenue home. Her husband, John Dickson, died fifteen years ago.
She is survived by a nephew, Carl F. Herter, who occupies part of the home, and by a niece, Mrs. Patrick Hoskins of Dover. Through many years affiliated with the mercantile business of J. D. Flock, she gained a wide acquaintance of stability and effectiveness.
