

PAUL T. DONNARUMMA

STANHOPE — Funeral services were held Wednesday for Paul Thomas Donnarumma, 42, of 18 McKinley St., who died Sunday at Dover General Hospital.

Born in Brooklyn, he lived here 35 years.

A machinist, he worked for Trim-Flex in Randolph.

A former Stanhope police officer, he was an Air Force veteran of the Korean conflict and the former captain of the Stanhope-Netcong American Legion Ambulance Squad.

He is survived by his widow, Theresa; a son, Paul Thomas Jr.; two daughters, Elizabeth A. and Lisa A., all at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Donnarumma of Hackettstown, and one brother, John F. Donnarumma Jr. of Budd Lake.

Services were from the Pichi Funeral Home, Stanhope, to St. Michael's R.C. Church, Netcong.

Interment was in Stanhope Union Cemetery.

Star-Gazette,
September 1, 1977.

Obituary,
Paul T. Donnarumma
Date of Death, August 28, 1977.