

OBITUARY

Eugene J. Dooner

MANSFIELD TWP. — Eugene J. Dooner, 86, died Tuesday, Dec. 16, 2003, in Hackettstown Community Hospital in Hackettstown.

Born on Jan. 24, 1917, in Moosic, Pa., he was a son of the late Eugene and Mary Gilbride Dooner.

His wife, the former, Helen Mooney, died in 1980.

Eugene worked as a drill press operator with Bergen Tool and Machine Co. in Hackettstown for 34 years, retiring many years ago.

He had lived in Mansfield Township for four years, coming from Hackettstown.

Eugene was a Little League coach in Hackettstown for many years.

Mr. Dooner served in the Army during World War II from 1944 to 1946.

He is survived by two sons, Michael of Saylorsburg, Pa., and Joseph of Hackettstown; a daughter, Jean Marie Lepre of Hackettstown; a brother, Donald and two sisters, Mary and Evelyn Dooner, all of Edison; and 18 grandchildren and many great-grandchildren.

A Mass was celebrated in Our Lady of the Mountain Church, Schooleys Mountain Road, Schooleys Mountain. Arrangements were by Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was in Our Lady of the Mountain Cemetery in Schooley's Mountain.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to your local animal shelter.

The Warren Reporter: December 26, 2003

NAME: Eugene J. Dooner

DATE OF DEATH: December 16, 2003