

JASON W. DOWLING
HACKETTSTOWN —

Funeral services were held Wednesday for Jason W. Dowling, 81, of 124½ Main St., who was pronounced dead on arrival Sunday at Hackettstown Community Hosiptal.

Born Feb. 12, 1896, in Cresco, Pa., he was a son of the late Homer and Amanda Heller Dowling. He moved here 25 years ago from Newton.

He was a retired maintenance man for the West Orange Hoseiry Mill here. He was an Army veteran of World War I and a member of Blue Ridge Post 164, American Legion, Hackettstown.

He is surved by his widow, the former Jennie Riedinger; a son, William of Frankford Township; a daughter, Mrs. Peter Gresavic of Lake Lenape; a sister, Mrs. Edna Parent of Herkimer, N.Y.; three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Services were in the Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown, conducted by Rev. E. Bruce Wills of the Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown.

Interment was in Newton Cemetery.

From;
Star-Gazette, March 31, 1977.

Obituary;
Jason W. Dowling,
Date of Death, March 27, 1977.