

OBITUARY

WILLIAM M. DRECHSEL

HACKETTSTOWN — Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for William M. Drechsel, 55, of Hackettstown, in the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Mr. Drechsel died last Thursday while at work as a molder at the Elastimold Division of the Elastic Stop Nut Corp. of America, in Hackettstown.

He came to this country from Germany in 1929 and lived in Hackettstown for the past 25 years. He was a member of the Washington Maennerchor, Washington and the Washington American Legion Post.

Survivors include his widow, the former Martha Weber; a son, Sgt. Rudolph Drechsel, with the U. S. Marines at Brooklyn Navy Yard; a daughter, Linda, at home; a sister, Mrs. Elsie Schlemmbach, Thalheim, Germany and three grandchildren.

The Washington Star : 26 November, 1964

NAME: William M. Drechsel

DATE OF DEATH: ~~26 November, 1964~~