

Matilda B. Duckworth

Matilda B. Duckworth, 75, of Hackettstown, died Saturday, Nov. 16 at Morristown Memorial Hospital.

Born on April 7, 1927 in Washington Township, Morris County, she was a daughter of the late Floyd and Anna Hoffman Beam.

Her husband, Walter H., died in 1992.

She had lived in Mansfield Village, Mansfield Township, before moving to Hackettstown two years ago.

She was last employed as a nurse's aid at Kessler Welkind Rehabilitation Hospital in Chester Township. Prior to that, she worked for many years in the cafeteria at West Morris Central High School in Washington Township.

She was a member of the Warren County Senior Citizens of Port Murray, and attended the Day Break Society Adult Care Center in Hackettstown.

She is survived by a daughter, Sharon Dolby and her husband, Ken of Hackettstown; a sister, Gertrude Manfra, and a brother, Theodore Beam, both of Long Valley; a grandson Eric Dolby; and a granddaughter, Gwen Dolby.

A sister, Lorraine Peer Komeans, died in 1996.

Services were held Wednesday, Nov. 20 at Coughlin Funeral Home, Califon. Burial was in Lower Union Cemetery in Califon.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to the Karen Ann Quinlan Hospice, 99 Sparta Road, Newton, N.J. 07860.
