

Edward A. Duda

GRAND BAHAMA ISLAND, The Bahamas — Edward A. Duda, formerly of Hackettstown, N.J., died yesterday at Dover General Hospital, Dover, N.J., following a short illness. He was 44.

Born in Kearny, Mr. Duda lived in Hackettstown for many years moving here in 1973.

He was an electrical foreman here for Pan American World Airways.

Surviving are his wife, Joan; two daughters, Debra and Sherri, at home; his mother, Helen, Hackettstown; four brothers, Alexander R., Mansfield Township, N.J., Kenneth C., West Orange, N.J., Richard, Lake Shawnee, N.J., and Robert W., Blairstown, N.J.; two sisters, Elizabeth Farr, Salt Lake City, and Terrie Ann, Hackettstown.

Arrangements are by Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown.

Daily Record,
October 29, 1982

OBITUARY:
Edward A. Duda,
Date of Death,
October 28, 1982