

OBITUARY

Frances Z. Duncan

Frances A. Duncan, 86, died September 10, 2009, in her home peacefully from this earth, surrounded by family and friends.

Born: In Hackettstown, NJ on January 30, 1923, she was a daughter of the late Raymond and Eleanor Crane Zellers.

Personal: She lived in Hackettstown area all of her life.

She was the wife of the late John Duncan, who died in 1994.

Frances was a kindergarten teacher in the Hackettstown School System for many years. She positively influenced countless children over that time as was evident in all the random meetings over the years of now grown former students. Amazingly she seldom failed to remember them by name and class.

Frances was very fortunate to have had a lifelong group of friends who formed a bridge club years ago. They shared the ups and downs, triumphs and failures and countless laughs that such a long standing friendship brings.

Memberships: She was a member of the Hackettstown First Presbyterian Church where she previously served as a Deacon. In earlier years, Frances served as a Girl Scout Leader in Hackettstown.

Survivors: son, Andrew Duncan of May's Landing, NJ; daughter, Pamela Dougherty of Hackettstown, NJ; brother, Theodore C. Zellars of Allamuchy, NJ; two granddaughters, Andrea and Amanda Brown, whom she cherished.

Frances is preceded in death by her husband, John Duncan and son Bruce.

Services: Visitation will be Sunday, September 13, 2009, from 4 to 8 p.m. at the Cochran Funeral Home. Services will be Monday, September 14, 2009 at 11 a.m. at the Hackettstown First Presbyterian Church, Main St., Hackettstown, NJ 07840.
