

OBITUARY

Delores Dunn, 95, of Hackettstown, N.J., died at her home on Sunday, April 14, 2013. Born in Slatington, Pa., on July 15, 1917, to the late Harry and Mary (Fairchild) Foreman, Delores lived in Hackettstown, N.J., for 15 years, coming from Parsippany, N.J. Delores was a registered nurse, and received her nursing degree from St. Luke's Nursing School, Bethlehem, Pa. She was employed at the Troy Hills Nursing Home, Parsippany, as a nursing supervisor. She proudly served in the United States Army and was a captain, serving as an Army nurse. She served in Europe during World War II. Her late sister, Adele Foreman, was also an Army nurse and was a POW in the Philippines during World War II. Delores is survived by a son, Paul Dunn, Petersburg, Pa.; two daughters, Dede and husband, Steve Sidle, Hackettstown, and Paula and husband, Michael Holmes, Hackettstown; six grandchildren, Sarah (Michael) Cunningham, Erica (Brad) Risboskin, Laura Steckl, Jesse (Jane) Washkau, Tyler (Kelsey) Dunn and Christian Sidle, and four great-grandchildren, Piper, Ezra, Trenton and Tyson. Private services will be at the convenience of the family.

The Star-Ledger: April 16, 2013

NAME: Dunn, Delores (nee Foreman)

DATE OF DEATH: February 16, 2011