

Mahlon Dunn Jr.

Services were held July 3 in the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, for Mahlon D. Dunn Jr., 65 of Hackettstown, who died June 30 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born in Newport, R.I., he lived in West Orange most of his life, and had moved to Hackettstown last year from Laurence Harbor.

Until retiring, he was a bus driver for the New Jersey Transit System, Orange.

Mr. Dunn was a past master of West Orange Lodge 205, F&AM, and a member of Tall Cedars of Lebanon. He served with the U.S. Army during World War II.

He is survived by his wife, Doris; three sons, Mark of Vancouver, Wash., Mahlon III of Long Island, N.Y., and Gene of Hackettstown; two sisters, Elaine Eldridge of California and Jewel Aiken of Warwick, R.I.; and seven grandchildren.

Interment was private.

Star-Gazette,
July 11, 1985.

OBITUARY:
Maholn Dunn Jr.,
Date of Death,
June 30, 1985.

Cat. No. 13571.16.12