

OBITUARY

Jack I. Eble

Jack I. Eble, 76, of Marietta, Ga., formerly of Hackettstown, died Dec. 28.

A graduate of Rutgers University. He received his doctor of chiropractic degree from Palmer Chiropractic College in Davenport, Iowa. He practiced for 43 years in East Orange and Hackettstown, prior to retirement.

He was the former president of the Warren County Board of Health in Hackettstown.

He was a Rotarian, a member of the American Legion and the Mount Bethel United Methodist Church in Marietta.

A loving husband, father and grandfather, he is survived by his wife, Nancy L. Eble; his daughter, Bonnie Burns of Pleasantville, N.Y.; his sons, Bob Eble and B.J. Eble, both of Marietta, and Chris Eble of Conyers, Ga.; and 11 grandchildren.

Services were held at Canton Hill with Dr. Randy Mickler officiating.

On line tributes may be posted at www.Mem.com.

Memorial donations may be sent to the Mount Bethel United Methodist Church Building Fund, 4385 Lower Roswell Road N.E., Marietta, Ga., 30068.

Arrangements were conducted by H.M. Patterson & Son Canton Hill Chapel in Marietta.

The Star-Gazette: January 9, 2003

NAME: Jack I. Eble

DATE OF DEATH: December 28, 2002