

OBITUARY

Miller Engemann

Miller Engemann, 84, of Spokane, Wash., and formerly of the Hackettstown area, died in Spokane, Wash., on Jan. 26.

Born and raised in the Hackettstown area, he was the son of the late August and Marlon Engemann. He graduated from Hackettstown High School and was a graduate of Rider College in Trenton. He moved to Spokane in 1956.

He was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Mr. Engemann retired from the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. in 1957. He was also a Real Estate broker in Washington.

Mr. Engemann is survived by his wife, Jeanette, at home; a sister, Margaret Bodenweiser of Trenton; a brother, Howard Engemann of Hackettstown; and two nephews.

A funeral Mass was held at 10 a.m. on Jan. 29, at St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church in Spokane. Interment was in St. Joseph's Cemetery, Spokane.

All arrangements were by the Hennessey-Smith Funeral Home, 2203 N. Division St., Spokane.

The Star-Gazette: February 24, 1994

NAME: Miller Engemann

DATE OF DEATH: January 26, 1994