

GEORGE A. ENGROFF

HACKETTSTOWN — George A. Engroff, 62, of 135 E. Prospect St., died Tuesday at Hackettstown Community Hospital, where he had been a patient five days.

Born Sept. 11, 1911, in Hackettstown, Mr. Engroff was a son of the late George and Murtie Heath Engroff. A retired supervisor of American Stores, he had been employed as manager of Yerkes Arco gas station on Main Street. He was a member of Independence Lodge No. 42, F & AM in Hackettstown.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Mazie Welch Engroff; a daughter, Mrs. Joan Ciulla, Branchville; one grandchild; and two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Hankinson of Hackettstown and Mrs. Gladys Stevens of North Fort Meyers, Fla.

Services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today at Cochran Funeral Home by the Rev. Dr. Lowell M. Atkinson. Interment will be in Union Cemetery here.

Star-Gazette,
December 28, 1973

OBITUARY: George A. Engroff
Date of Death,
December 26, 1973