

William W. Estler

William W. Estler, 82 of Effort, Pa., died April 24 in the Pocono Medical Center in Stroudsburg, Pa.

He was born in Hackettstown, the son of the late Francis and Doretta McNeel Estler.

He lived in Effort for 18 years, coming from Morristown and Hackettstown.

He was an electrical engineer, employed by Bell Labs in Whippany.

He was married to Edna Fidler.

Survivors include a son, Bruce of Belmar; a daughter, Susan Stoepker of Myakka City, Fla.; three grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Services were held in the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown.

Interment was in the Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

Contributions may be made to American Cancer Society, N.C. Division, Inc. Warren Uni Osmun House, 4 Opdyke's Lane Oxford, N.J. 07863.

The Star-Gazette: May 4, 2000

NAME: William W. Estler

DATE OF DEATH: April 24, 2000