

OBITUARY

Alexander M. Everitt, Passed Away Following Long Illness Due to Paralysis

Alexander M. Everitt died Sunday evening at his home, 107 Moore Street, Hackettstown, after a year's illness of paralysis. He was a native of Hackettstown and died in the house in which he was born. He did not live there all his life, however, having resided in the vicinity of Stewartsville for some time. He returned to the Everitt homestead several years ago and lived there with his daughter, Mrs. Newton Mount. In addition he is survived by a son, Elijah Everitt, of Newton.

Funeral services were held at the home on Wednesday at 2 p.m. in chare of Rev. Dr. James W. Martyn, pastor emeritus of the Hackettstown Presbyterian Church, assisted by Rev. C. Ransom Comfort, pastor-elect. Interment was made in the Fairmount Cemetery, Phillipsburg.

The Hackettstown Gazette: January 1, 1932

NAME: Everitt, Alexander M.

DATE OF DEATH: December 27, 1931