

Clement R. Ferdinando Jr.

HACKETTSTOWN — Clement R. Ferdinando Jr. of Hackettstown, died Monday, Dec. 18, 2006, at Hackensack University Medical Center. He was 58.

Born in Edison, he lived in Hackettstown since 1978.

For over 30 years, he served as the health officer in Randolph Township.

He was also a part-time professor at Rutgers University, where he himself had graduated from with bachelor's and master's degrees in public health. Over the past several years, he taught environmental and public health courses on Cook Campus.

Clement R. Ferdinando Jr.

Mr. Ferdinando served as president-elect of the New Jersey Health Officers Association, where he was a board member for many years.

Preceded in death by his mother, Elsie Ferdinando, he is survived by his wife, JoAnn Giordano Ferdinando; father, Clement R. Ferdinando Sr. of Edison; children, Nicole M. Ferdinando of Lawrenceville, Jacqueline A. Ferdinando and Alexander C. Ferdinando, both of Hackettstown. He is also survived by his brother, Kenneth Ferdinando; sisters, Arleen Angel and Marie Schneider, and many other family and friends.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated in St. Alphonsus Catholic Church, Hopewell. Interment followed in Highland Cemetery. Arrangements were by the Cromwell-Immordino Memorial Home in Hopewell.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Leukemia Society, Donor Services, P.O. Box 4072, Pittsfield, Mass. 01202.

The Warren Reporter: January 5, 2007

NAME: Clement R. Ferdinando, Jr.

DATE OF DEATH: December 18, 2006