

F. U. Ferrone

Services were held Friday in the Whitham-Kanapaux Funeral Home, Rockaway, followed by a Liturgy of Christian Burial at St. Cecilia's Church, Rockaway, for Frances U. Ferrone, 57, of Rockaway, who died Feb. 9 at Dover General Hospital after a short illness.

Mrs. Ferrone was born in Dover and lived in Rockaway most of her life. She and her husband owned and operated Johnny's Bar and Grill, Rockaway, for 13 years before selling the business in 1972. She was a member of St. Cecilia's Church, Rockaway.

Surviving are her husband, John J.; three sons, John C. of San Diego, Calif., Jerry of Hackettstown and Joseph T. of Las Vegas, Nev.; three brothers, Charles Stanckiewicz of Clifton, William Stansky of Dover and Walter Stanckiewicz of Winter Park, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Daisey Arden of Dover and Mrs. Terry Dixon of Marion, Ohio; and five grandchildren.

The Forum,
February 18, 1982.

OBITUARY:
Frances U. Ferrone.
Date of Death,
February, 9, 1982