

Katherine Marie Flesch

HACKETTSTOWN — Katherine Marie Flesch, 21, passed away Sunday, March 21, 2004 at Warren Hospital, Phillipsburg.

Born March 17, 1983 in Hackettstown, she was the daughter of Olav J. and Gloria (Thornton) Flesch. She lived all of her life in Hackettstown.

Katherine was a Dean's List student at the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, studying Communications and Women's Studies. During high school and when she was home from college, she was employed by Marshall's of Hackettstown.

A graduate of Hackettstown High School in 2001, Katherine also participated in the Belchoir for eight years at Trinity United Methodist Church, Hackettstown. Katherine enjoyed music, shopping, movies, her cats, gerbils and bunnies. Katherine was a kind and open-hearted individual who would befriend any person or creature who needed her.

She is survived by her mother and father, Gloria and Olav J. Flesch of Hackettstown, her sister, Valerie Flesch of Hackettstown, maternal grandmother, Simone Thornton, fraternal grandmother, Petronella Flesch and her beloved pet cats, Rascal, Jackie and a pair of gerbils.

Funeral service was held at Cochran Funeral Home, Inc., Hackettstown. Interment was private.

Memorials may be made to the Animal Shelter of your choice.

The Warren Reporter: April 2, 2004

NAME: Katherine Marie Flesch

DATE OF DEATH: March 21, 2004