

Helen Fleming

A memorial service was held Feb. 16 in Colorado for Helen H. Fleming, 88, of Colorado Springs, Colo., who died Feb. 13 in Colorado.

Born in Oxford, she was a former resident of Belvidere and had lived in the Colorado Springs area since 1976.

A graduate of Hackettstown High School and New Jersey State Teachers College, Trenton, she was a teacher in Warren County schools until her retirement in 1964.

She was a member of NJNRTA, Daughters of the American Revolution, Common Cause and the Sierra Club. She was also a member of the Colonial Methodist Church, Oxford.

Mrs. Fleming is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Betty Hoagland of Colorado Springs, two grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Interment of ashes will be held in Pequest Union Cemetery, Great Meadows. The Swan-Law Funeral Home, Colorado Springs, was in charge of arrangements.

Star Gazette
February 28, 1985

OBITUARY
Helen Fleming
Date of Death,
February 13, 1985