

OBITUARY

Otto Fossum died on Monday, August 15, 2011 at the House of Good Shepherd in Hackettstown. He was 85. Born in Brooklyn, NY, he moved to Byram Twp. in 1977. Mr. Fossum served in the United States Navy during World War II and Korea. He was a police officer in the NYPD for 22 years before his retirement in 1975. He was also a member of the Byram Seniors Club.

He was predeceased by his wife Eileen in 1999. He is survived by two daughters, Janet Zanetti (and husband John), and Jill Fossum all of Byram Twp., three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held on Thursday, August 18 at 11:30 a.m. at Tranquility Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Lakeland Emergency Squad, P.O. Box 311 Andover, NJ 07821.

The Daily Record: August 17, 2011

NAME: Fossum, Otto

DATE OF DEATH: August 15, 2011