

KENNETH E. FOSTER
BUDD LAKE — Kenneth E. Foster, of 222 Rt. 46, 57-year-old foreman at Picatinny Arsenal, Dover, was pronounced dead on arrival Monday at Hackettstown Community Hospital after being stricken at home. Born June 11, 1916, in Hackettstown, he was a son of Mrs. Ollie McNair Foster and the late Jacob B. Foster. Mr. Foster had lived in Budd Lake three years, moving here from Stanhope. He was employed as a foreman in the Powder and Explosives Division of Picatinny Arsenal. He served with the U.S. Marine Corps during World War II in the Asiatic-Pacific Theater of Operations. He was a member of the Netcong VFW, the Chester Masonic Lodge and the Valley of Trenton Shrine.

In addition to his mother, with whom he lived, he is survived by a son, Kenneth D., Parsippany; a brother, Charles A., Drakestown; a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Butz, Heriot Bay, British Columbia, Canada; and one grandson.

Masonic rites were held Wednesday evening at the Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettstown. Funeral services will be conducted today at Cochran's at 1:30 p.m. by the Rev. Thorwald Torgersen of Drakestown United Methodist Church. Interment will be in Union Cemetery, Hackettstown.
