

OBITUARY

Harold J. Francis

Harold J. Francis, 69, of Hackettsown, died Oct. 10 at House of the Good Shepherd in Hackettsown.

Born Aug. 14, 1933 in Easton, Pa., he was the son of the late Marshall and Myrtle Savacool Francis.

He lived in Hackettsown since 1981 coming from Washington (Warren County).

He was a salesman with Bangor Monument in Bangor, Pa., for 10 years, previously he was employed in the same capacity with T.Y. Ward Monument Co., in Hackettsown.

He was an Army veteran having served in the Korean Conflict.

He was a member of the Methodist faith.

He was an avid fisherman, traveler and football fan.

Survivors include his wife, Rita Francis; two sons, James Francis of Morristown and Jeffrey Francis of Hope; a daughter, Jo Ann Standlick of Bath, Pa.; two step-daughters, Judith Ann Klinger of New York City, N.Y. and Nancy L. Klinger of Portland, Oregon; a brother, William Francis of Phillipsburg; two sisters, Alice Farina of Phillipsburg and Jane Strauss of Warm Mineral Springs, Florida; and six grandchildren.

A brother, Marshall Francis, died in 1970.

Services were held from Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettsown.

Interment was in Northampton Memorial Shrine, Easton, Pa.

Cochran Funeral Home in Hackettsown was in charge of arrangements.

Memorial donations may be sent to the Alzheimer's Association, 299 Cherry Hill Road, Parsippany, N.J. 07054.

The Star-Gazette: October 17, 2002

NAME: Harold J. Francis

DATE OF DEATH: October 10, 2002