

OBITUARY

Charles Martin Frank, age 102, passed away peacefully in Hackettstown, NJ on September 21, 2016. He was born in Bloomfield, NJ on Jan. 1, 1914 to Charles and Alice Martin Frank.

Mr. Frank was a US Army veteran who served in the European Theater of Operations during WWII. He received a Purple Heart for injuries sustained during service. After the war, he worked for Gibbs and Cox, a naval architecture firm in New York City, for 36 years and later for Blue Cross-Blue Shield in Newark until his retirement in 1986.

Mr. Frank lived in the Indian Lake section of Denville from 1954 until he retired to Vero Beach, Florida in 1986. He returned to New Jersey in 2011, where he resided at the House of Good Shepherd in Hackettstown.

Mr. Frank was predeceased by his wife Jean Lloyd Frank and son Charles L. Frank. He is survived by son Donald of Flanders, four grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Mr. Frank will be interred following a private ceremony at the Denville Cemetery at a date yet to be determined.

The Daily Record: October 1, 2016

NAME: Frank, Charles Martin

DATE OF DEATH: September 21, 2016