

Walter Frankenfield, owned trucking firm

Walter R. Frankenfield, 81, of Hackettstown, died Wednesday, Feb. 25, in his home.

He was the owner of W. Frankenfield Trucking and also did air conditioning/refrigeration repair. He was a school bus driver for Independence Township before retiring many years ago.

Born March 25, 1916, in Cementon, Pa., he was a son of the late Walter and Barbara Brandmeier Frankenfield. He lived in the Hackettstown area since 1942, moving from Newark and Livingston, N.J., where he spent his teen-age years.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

He was a member of Vienna Methodist Church in Vienna.

He was past committeeman and mayor of Independence Township. Former Independence Township building inspector, he was instrumental in making the Independence Township baseball field.

He was a member of American Legion Post 164 in Hackettstown and Independence Township Senior Club.

He is survived by his wife, the former Phoebe Tichenor; a son, Robert C. of Vienna; a granddaughter, three step-granddaughters, three step-great-granddaughters and a niece.

Services will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday in Cochran Funeral Home, 905 High St., Hackettstown. Call 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday in the funeral home. Burial will be in Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

THE EXPRESS TIMES

NAME: WALTER FRANKENFIELD

DATE OF DEATH: FEB 25, 1997