

Walter Frankenfield

HACKETTSTOWN — Walter R. Frankenfield, 81, died Wednesday, Feb. 25, in his home.

Born March 25, 1916, in Cementon, Pa., he was a son of the late Walter and Barbara Frankenfield. He lived in the Hackettstown area since 1942, moving from Newark and Livingston, where he spent his teenage years.

He was the owner of W. Frankenfield Trucking and also did air conditioning/refrigeration repair. He was a school bus driver for Independence Township before retiring many years ago.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

He was a member of Vienna Methodist Church in Vienna.

He was past committeeman and mayor of Independence Township. Former Independence Township building inspector. He was instrumental in making the Independence Township baseball field.

He was a member of American Legion Post 164 in Hackettstown and Independence Township Senior Club.

He is survived by his wife, the former Phoebe Tichenor; a son, Robert C. of Vienna; a granddaughter; three step-granddaughters; three step-great-granddaughters and a niece.

Services were held in Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown. Burial was in Pequest Union Cemetery in Great Meadows.

The Star-Gazette: March 5, 1998

NAME: Walter R. Frankenfield

DATE OF DEATH: February 25, 1998