Luella Freeman

Luella Freeman of Hackettstown died May 10 at Beth Israel Hospital in Newark.

She was born Luella Mueller in Jersey City and was a long time resident of Millington before moving to Hackettstown.

She was a graduate of the Sargent School of Physical Education and New York University School of Education. She taught physical education at Trenton State College in 1928-29.

Mrs. Freeman was a member of the Basking Ridge Presbyterian Church where she had served as a deacon and was an ordained elder.

She is survived by a son, Dr. Jeffrey Freeman of Castleton, Vt.; a daughter, Jean Gabrielse of North Vancouver, B.C.; four grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Her husband, George C. Freeman, died in 1991.

Services were held at Heath Village in Hackettstown. Burial was private.

Memorial donations may be made in her name to the Heath Village Friendship Fund, Attn: Valerie Hart, Hackettstown, NJ 07840. The Gallaway and Crane Funeral Home in Basking Ridge was in charge of arrangements.
