

Charles Fritz

A Mass of Christian Burial was said for Charles Fritz, 87, of Hackettstown, who died April 7 at St. Clare's-Riverside Medical Center, Denville, after a long illness.

He was born in Austria and lived most of his life in Brooklyn, N.Y., moving to Hackettstown in 1977.

He was a machinist with Otis Elevator Co. in Harrison for 20 years, until he retired in 1973.

He was a member of St. Mary's Church of the Assumption in Hackettstown and of Joyce Kilmer Council, Knights of Columbus #2483, Hackettstown.

Mr. Fritz is survived by one daughter, Rose Marie Quigley of Hackettstown; one son, Charles Jr. of Oakdale, N.Y.; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

His wife, Rose, died in 1979.

Interment was in Our Lady of the Mountain Cemetery, Schooley's Mountain. The Scala Memorial Home of Hackettstown was in charge of arrangements.

The Star-Gazette: April 18, 1991

NAME: Charles Fritts

DATE OF DEATH: April 7, 1991