

OBITUARY

Victor Frumolt Jr.

HACKETTSTOWN — Victor Frumolt Jr., 85, died Tuesday, June 24 at Hackettstown Community Hospital.

Born March 3, 1918 in North Bergen, he was the son of the late

Victor Frumolt and Ida (Stalter).

He lived in Hackettstown for the last 13 years and was previously of Guttenberg where he lived for over 20 years.

He was a Teamster in Local #560 for Red Star Express in North Bergen, retiring in 1976.

He served in the Navy during WWII (1944-1945).

Survivors are his wife of 62 years, Gladys M. (Stahl); sons, Victor Frumolt of Parsippany and Alan Frumolt of Lodi; daughters, Arlene Scudder of Long Valley and Debra Michelus of Fairlawn; sisters Ethel Gratzel of Pennsylvania and Barbara Ippillito of Pennsylvania; 10 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

He was predeceased by his brother Robert Frumolt and sister Theresa Lucarini.

Services were held at William J. Leber Funeral Home, Chester.

Donations in his memory to St. Luke Children's Hospital, 190 E. Bannock St., Boise, ID 83712.

The Warren Reporter: July 4, 2003

NAME: Victor Frumolt, Jr.

DATE OF DEATH: June 24, 2003