

Sarah M. Frutchey

Sarah M. Frutchey, 90, of Hackettstown, died Sept. 22 at the home of her daughter, Jane, in Shoreview, Minn.

Born June 8, 1911 in Taylor, Pa., she was the daughter of the late Mary Jane Bevan and the late George W. Morris.

She graduated from Taylor High School in 1929, and then worked as a dental assistant for Dr. Samson in Taylor. In 1939, she married Harold Ernest Frutchey of Scranton, Pa. They lived in Taylor until 1942 when they moved to Bayside, Long Island, then in 1945 to Springfield, and in 1951 they moved to Hackettstown. She has worked at Morgan and Sons Florists, Thiokol Chemical Corp., and as a bookkeeper and office manager for DiMaio Brothers, Construction in Hackettstown.

In 1941 she was a Past Worthy Matron of the Order of Eastern Star in the Taylor Chapter 195 of OES. She was a past president of the Women's Society of the Trinity Methodist Church and also was a member and past president of the Women's Club of Hackettstown, 10th District of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Club. She was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church, a charter member of the Hackettstown Historical Society and a lifetime member of the Hackettstown Community Hospital Auxiliary. She was also a volunteer at the Hackettstown Hospital and worked for the election board.

She lived each day with dignity and integrity, and with a quiet personal faith.

In June 1997, she was preceded in death by her husband of 58 years, Harold E. Frutchey; three brothers, George, David and Henry; and three sisters, Grace, Margaret and Lillian.

Survivors include a brother, Robert Morris, of Orlando, Fla.; a son, H. Bruce, wife Daphne, of Longwood, Fla.; a daughter, Jane Scott, husband Gary, of St. Paul, Minn.; six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Services were held at Cochrah Funeral Home, Inc. in Hackettstown.

Interment was in Abington Hills Cemetery, Clark-Summit, Pa.

Memorials may be made to the Trinity United Methodist Church, Main Street, Hackettstown, N.J. or The First Congregational United Church of Christ, 132 Union St., Taylor, Pa., 18517.
