

OBITUARY

MRS. JAMES GALLAGHER

HACKETTSTOWN — Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in the Cochran Funeral Home, Hackettstown, for Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Gallagher, 89, of 204 Cook Street, Hackettstown. Mrs. Gallagher died on Sunday in the Warren Hospital, Phillipsburg after a short illness. She was the widow of the late George Gallagher.

Mrs. Gallagher lived most of her life in Hackettstown. She was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church, the Friendly Bible Class and the WSCS of the church; the General Torbett Circle 38, GAR, Hackettstown and the Morning Star Lodge 89, Shepherds of Bethlehem, of Dover.

Survivors include a son, James, Hackettstown; two daughters, Mrs. Ethel M. Roff, Dover and Mrs. Hazel M. Rogers, Hackettstown; five grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

The Washington Star : 24 February, 1966

NAME: Mrs. James (Mary Elizabeth) Gallagher

DATE OF DEATH: 24 February, 1966