

Stanley E. Gibbs

HACKETTSTOWN — Stanley E. Gibbs died Monday at Baker General Hospital after a short illness. He was 67.

Born in Great Meadows, he resided here all his life.

He retired in 1981 after serving 16 years as a foreman for the town Municipal Utilities Authority.

Surviving are his wife, Doris Hendershot; four sons, Stanley Jr., Hackettstown; Harry, Landing; and Norman and Frank, Budd Lake; two daughters, Bonnie Le Gora, Budd Lake, and Catherine, at home; a stepson, Lester Smith Jr., Destin, Fla.; two stepdaughters, Judith Stephens, Ballwin, Mo., and Margaret Barker, Destin, Fla.; a brother, Joseph Gibbs, Hackettstown; three sisters, Lena Shay, Hackettstown; Viola Strehlen, Port Richey, Fla., and Jennie Werner, New Port Richey, Fla.; and 24 grandchildren.

Arrangements are by the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown.

Daily Record,

March 21, 1984

OBITUARY: Stanley E. Gibbs
Date of Death.
March 19, 1984