

OBITUARY

The funeral of Joseph Giles was held yesterday afternoon from the home of his nephew, Harry Giles, in Dover, and the burial was made in the Orchard Street Cemetery at that place. Mr. Giles, whose age was eighty-four years, died Saturday night at his home on the Rockaway road, near Dover, from heart trouble after a sickness of only one day. He was a carriage blacksmith by trade, but had been retired for many years. Mr. Giles was born in Hackettstown and resided here for many years. He formerly owned the property on Main Street now owned and occupied by Jehiel Schuyler. Justice of the Peace William D. King, of Main Street, is a nephew of Mr. Giles, and he is also survived by a widow and other relatives.

The Hackettstown Gazette: February 16, 1917

NAME: Giles, Joseph

DATE OF DEATH: February 10, 1917