

OBITUARY

Anne Carroll Golzio

Anne Carroll Golzio, 56, of Hackettstown, died Oct. 12 at home following a long illness.

Born on Nov. 7, 1944 in Jersey City, she was the daughter of the late John and Alice Farrell Carroll. She was born and raised in Jersey City, living there for many years and for the past 26 years, in Hackettstown.

She worked for Western Electric Gateway 2 in Newark for 10 years. She also worked at Waterloo Village for 10 years as a tour guide and managed the Revolutionary War Tavern in Stanhope.

She was a member of the Church of the Assumption. She was a leader of the Western Electric Youth Pioneers, a Newark voluntary organization working with addicts and blind people. She was also a set up keeper for softball games for the Helen Keller School for the Blind in Newark and many other Newark community-based activities such as substance abuse and education.

Mrs. Golzio was active for 20 years in the National Multiple Sclerosis Society from whom she received the Good Neighbor Award for her work with the walk-a-thons. She was a local support group leader in the Hackettstown area. Mrs. Golzio attended the Church of the Assumption in Hackettstown, and was a Lunch Mom and Playground Mom and leader of the Social Concerns Committee for the school.

She is survived by her husband, Hank II, at home; a son, Hank III and his wife Alli Golzio of Boyton Beach, Fla.; a daughter, Sara, of Hartford, Conn.; a sister, Mary Lou Carroll of Jersey City; two brothers, John Carroll of Sea Girt and Joseph Carroll of Seacaucus; several nieces and nephews and grand-nephews and a grand-niece.

Services were held at the Church of the Assumption.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, P.O. Box 9029, Trenton, N.J. 08650 in her memory.

Arrangements were by Scala Memorial Home, Hackettstown.
