

OBITUARY

Ginger Lee Gormley, 41, of Hackettstown, NJ, passed away Saturday, October 15, 2011 at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital, New York, NY, after a short illness. Born: March 8, 1970 in Lake Hopatcong, NJ, she was a daughter of the late Matthew Gormley, who died April 6, 1998, and Patricia Elias with whom she resided. Personal: She resided most of her lifetime in Hackettstown, NJ. She was Vice President of Jones, Shange, Lesalle, working for AT&T in the Bedminster office for the past 12 years. She taught fast pitch on Sunday mornings in Hackettstown, charter member and board member of Local, Travel, Fast Pitch Softball League. She worked concession stands for many local football games. Memberships: She was a member of Church of the Assumption, Hackettstown, NJ. Ginger was the co-founder of TSA (Tiger sports Association and Organization) for young athletics and started the check program for them. Survivors: mother, Patricia Elias Gormley, with whom she resided; sisters, Michele and her husband Shawn of Pittstown, NJ, Dawn and her husband Roy Mirko of Wayne, NJ, Susie Wiatrak at home; nieces and nephews, Kyle, Craig, and Carlee; also many loving Aunts, Uncles, Cousins and many friends. She was predeceased by her father, Matthew Gormley. Services: At the Church of Assumption, Hackettstown, Wednesday, October 19, 2011 at 11 a.m. Mass conducted by Father David Pekola. Interment will be private. The family has asked that everyone go directly to church on Wednesday for Ginger's Liturgy of Christian Burial at 11 a.m. Friends may call Tuesday from 2 to 4 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. at the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High Street, Hackettstown, NJ 07840. Memorials: In lieu of flowers, donations to Ginger Gormley Scholarship Fund, c/o 117 Richard Drive, Hackettstown, NJ, 07840.

The Express Times: October 18, 2011

NAME: Gormley, Ginger Lee

DATE OF DEATH: October 15, 2011