

Matthew J. Gormley

HACKETTSTOWN — Matthew J. Gormley died April 6, 1998, at home after a long illness. He was 61.

Born in Bayonne, he was a son of Dorothy M. Conny Bohn of Parsippany and George L. Bohn. He lived for many years in East Hanover and for the past 22 years in Hackettstown.

He was the maintenance division manager for Petillo Landscaping in Randolph.

He was assistant baseball and football coach for the Hackettstown Recreation Department and coached the Upper and Lower Litcher League girls softball for many years. He was a member of the Men's Softball League, having been the founder of the former Scala Memorial Home team. He was a former member of the Hackettstown Zoning Board.

He was a member of the Catholic Church of the Assumption in Hackettstown.

Two brothers, George and Arthur Bohn, died earlier.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by his wife, Patricia Elias Gormley; three daughters, Ginger and Dawn Gormley, both of Hackettstown and Michele Baran of Belvidere; two brothers, Robert Gormley of Union and James Gormley of Parsippany; two sisters, Jo Ann Van Segern of Point Pleasant, and Patricia Lombardi of Parsippany and a grandson.

Services were held on April 13 at the Catholic Church of the Assumption in Hackettstown. Burial was private.

Warren Reporter 4/19/98

Warren Reporter

April 19, 1998

OBITUARY : Matthew J. Gormley

Date of death , April 6, 1998