David J. Govan

HACKETTSTOWN — David J. Govan of Hackettstown died Wednesday, Jan. 17, 2007 at Easton Hospital. He was 75.

Born June 16, 1931 in Newark, he was a son of the late David J. and Vila Hartly Govan.

He and his wife, the former Carmen Tersigni Lynch, were married for 49 years on Christmas Day.

David was a 1950 graduate of Easton High School. He had lived in Easton until 1957 and worked for Fred Will Industries. He was a co-owner of Luigi's Ranch-O, Route 46, Belvidere, along with his wife Carmen and late mother-in-law, Virginia E. Tersigni from 1968 to 1990.

He resided in Hackettstown for the past seven years. He was an avid sports fan and had enjoyed playing golf with his many friends.

David was a 50 year member of the Moose Lodge #45, Easton.

In addition to his wife, Carmen, he is survived by two sons, Louis B. Lynch and his wife Linda of Pocono Estates, Bushkill, Pa., and David John Govan III and his wife Laura of Bedminster; a brother, John Govan; a sister, Catherine Matyger, both of Palmer Township; six grandchildren, Chase and Brandi Lynch, J.P., James, Luke, and Charles Govan; a sister-in-law, Lois Anne Bonar of Hackettstown; and nieces and nephews.

Two sisters, Margaret Mitchell and Rose Ann Govan, both died earlier.

A Christian Wake was held at the MacFadden Funeral Home, 325 Hardwick Street, Belvidere. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery, Alpha. Online condolences may be sent to www.macfaddenfuneralhome.com.

Contributions are to be made in his memory to the Cardiology Research Fund, Temple University School of Medicine Development Office O.D.S., Suite 4123, 3223 North Broad Street, Philadelphia, PA 19140 (ph. 215-707-4868)
