

WILLIAM J. GRACE

ROCKAWAY — Funeral services were held Monday for William J. Grace, of 140 Maple Ave., who died May 8 at St. Clare's Hospital, Denville, following a long illness.

Grace, 66, was born in Hoboken. A former Hackettstown resident, he had lived in Rockaway for 25 years.

He had retired in June 1974 after serving 16 years with the maintenance department of the Rockaway Borough Public Schools.

He is survived by his wife, Ann M. Grace two daughters, Mrs. Catherine A. Allen of Clearwater, Fla., and Ms. Rosemary King, of Hollywood, Fla.; four brothers, James H. of Miami Springs Fla., Harry A. of Tom's River; John L. of White House Station, and Eugene F. of Hackettstown; four sisters, Miss Mary B. of Hackettstown, Mrs. Catherine L. Seber of Avon-on-the-Sea, Mrs. Alice G. Wood of West Orange, and Mrs. Ann G. Sloman of Virginia Gardens, Fla.; and two grandchildren.

A Mass of the Resurrection was held at St. Cecilia's Roman Catholic Church, Rockaway. Arrangements were by the Whitnam-Lester Funeral Home, Rockaway.

Interment was in Hackettstown Union Cemetery.

* Star-Gazette,
May 15, 1975

OBITUARY: William J. Grace
Date of Death,
May 8, 1975