

OBITUARY

William Grambor

William Grambor, 78, of Hackettstown died on Sept. 10 at Hackettstown Community Hospital, after a long illness.

Born in Rochester, N.Y., he was the son of the late John and Veronica Grambor. He lived most of his life in Berkeley Heights, N.J., and had been a Hackettstown resident for the past year.

He retired after 30 years as a tool and die maker for the Jacobson Manufacturer, Kenilworth. He was member of the United Auto Workers Union and the Hackettstown Moose Lodge.

Mr. Grambor's wife, Jean, died in 1980.

He is survived by his sons, Jeffrey of Hackettstown, Richard Klecan of Freehold and Thomas Kelcan of Bayville; two daughters, Melanie Lennon of Flemington and Mary Jean Romano of Danbury, N.H.; two sisters, Helen Milewski of Spotswood and Joanna Kordys of Far Hills, 11 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held on Sept. 14 at 10 a.m. at the Scala Memorial Home, 124 High St., Hackettstown, with the Rev. Thomas Armour officiating. Interment was in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, East Hanover.
