

OBITUARY

WILLIAM GREENHAM

HACKETTSTOWN — Funeral services for William Greenham, 68, of 103 Little St., Hackettstown, were held Saturday afternoon at the Cochran Funeral Home. Masonic services were held Friday night at the funeral home.

Mr. Greenham died on Wednesday of last week in the Morristown Memorial Hospital after a 10 days' illness. For the last 25 years Mr. Greenham had been a licensed health officer for the state of New Jersey.

He was the son of Mrs. Millie Greenham Henry of Hackettstown, and the late John Greenham, and was born March 9, 1895 in Newark. He spent most of his life in the Hackettstown area.

He was the husband of the former Myrtle Gray. Mr. Greenham belonged to Independence Lodge 42, F.&A.M., of Hackettstown, and was a past chief of the Hackettstown Fire Department. He belonged to the Exempt Firemen's Association of New Jersey and the New Jersey Health Officers' Association.

Besides his widow, survivors include two sons, John of Englewood, and William Jr. of Denville; two daughters, Evelyn, at home, and Mrs. Marie Fowler of Toms River; two brothers, Leslie of Cedar Grove and Edwin Henry of Newton; a sister, Mrs. Lydia Sanford of Hackettstown, and five grandchildren.

The Star: 27 February, 1964

NAME: William Greenham

DATE OF DEATH: ~~27 February, 1964~~