

GUS O. GREIFF

HACKETTSTOWN — Gus O. Greiff, 81, a former Hackettstown (Mt. Olive) resident, passed away in Virginia Beach, Va., on Feb. 21 after a long illness.

Greiff, who retired in 1955 as advertising manager of Metronome Magazine in New York City, was commander of W.W.I Barracks and member of Independent Lodge No. 42, F & AM, Hackettstown.

Greiff is survived by his widow, Rotothy Breese Greiff of Virginia Beach, a daughter, Mrs. Marvin L. Carpenter of Hackettstown, two grandchildren, a great grand child, two brothers and a sister.

Services will be held at Lynnhaven Methodist Church and the burial at Rosewood Memorial Cemetery in Virginia Beach.

From;

Star-Gazette, March 10, 1977.

Gus O. Greiff,

Died February 21, 1977.