

Death of Mrs. Gruendyke.

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth Gruendyke, sixty-five years old, wife of Daniel Gruendyke, will be held at 2:30 tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon from her late home on Main street. Interment will be in Union Cemetery. Dr. J. W. Martyn, pastor of the local Presbyterian Church, will officiate. Mrs. Gruendyke died Wednesday following a protracted illness contributory to hardening of the arteries. She was a devoted mother and leaves the following sons and daughters to miss her kindly administrations and personal interest: Floyd W., Nelson and William I. Gruendyke, Mrs. Charles Slack of Jersey City, Mrs. G. C. Bird, and Miss Lila Gruendyke at home. Mrs. Gruendyke was a daughter of the late Nelson and Maria Trimmer, and all her life was passed in or near Hackettstown. Her surviving brothers and sisters are: Nelson Trimmer of Galva, Ill.; Theodore Trimmer of Union, William D. Trimmer and Mrs. Lena Cramer of Hackettstown and Mrs. John Ketcham of Dover.
